HOW TO BECOME AN OBSERVER MEMBER?

If you are interested to participate in the ICCF activities as an observer member, please contact the ICCF Secretariat (secretariat@iccffeed.org).

If you would like to apply to become an ICCF Observer, please consider the following elements:

1. ICCF always includes the local Feed Industry Association and the relevant local authority to contribute to its work – there needs to be a commitment from both parties to join ICCF together.
2. Please provide a description and status of the dedicated regulatory framework for the marketing of feed and feed ingredients.
3. You will need information from the regulatory authority on the pre-market assessment process and capacity for the scientific evaluation of the safety and efficacy of feed ingredients and feeds in the jurisdiction and
4. The commitment to nominate experts to the Expert Working Group with the experience and/or knowledge of the above pre-market assessment process and to ensure the availability and commitment from the nominated expert(s) once invited.
